IN RECOGNITION OF FRANK W.
BUCKLES

HON. JOE WILSON

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 26, 2008

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Madam Speaker, I rise to recognize Frank W. Buckles. Mr. Buckles, at the age of 107, is the last known remaining veteran of World War I.

Having joined the Army at the age of 16, Mr. Buckles fought bravely for his Nation in World War I. During the Second World War, as a civilian he was imprisoned by the Japanese and spent 39 months in captivity.

The freedoms we enjoy today and the prosperity our nation has enjoyed throughout its history are due in large part to the sacrifice and courage of men and women like Mr. Buckles. As the son of a World War II veteran and a former member of the National Guard and Reserve myself, I know firsthand and am grateful for the tremendous legacy of patriotism shared by our military. I am the proud to be the father of four sons who serve in our nation's military, including two sons who served in Iraq.

In honor of his sacrifice and dedication to his country, Frank Buckles was recognized by President George W. Bush earlier this year during a ceremony honoring World War I veterans. On September 24th, the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Southern Jurisdiction honored Mr. Buckles by bestowing upon him the Scottish Rite honor and rank of Knight Commander of the Court of Honour. As a fellow mason, I am proud of the tradition of brotherhood and dedication to freedom that masons embody.

I congratulate and thank Frank Buckles for his service to our Nation.

CONGRATULATING LOVING CHOICES PREGNANCY CENTERS OF NORTHWEST ARKANSAS

HON. JOHN BOOZMAN

OF ARKANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 26, 2008

Mr. BOOZMAN. Madam Speaker, I would like to congratulate Loving Choices Pregnancy Centers of Northwest Arkansas. The centers provide critical services for women who are faced with life changing decisions.

Employees in the Rogers and Fayetteville centers have a difficult task counseling and educating one thousand women annually on the choices they have. Their job is made easier with the help of 30 volunteers who collectively spend more than one thousand hours serving the needs of women in a reproductive health crisis. Offering a listening ear, helping expectant mothers prepare for their baby and using their sewing skills are just a handful of services volunteers provide.

In recognition of their efforts, Loving Choices Pregnancy Centers of Northwest Arkansas received the 'President's Volunteer Services Award.' This honor is given to Americans who demonstrate their commitment to volunteerism and inspire others to do follow their example.

I am thankful Northwest Arkansas residents are so willing to help their neighbors in need and share their time and resources to benefit the greater good of the community. Volunteers are a critical component of ensuring the continued success of Loving Choices Pregnancy Centers of Northwest Arkansas.
